[AUGUST, MDCCLXIX.]

THE SOUTH-CAROLINA AND COUNTRY GAZETTE; JOURNAL.

NUMB. [192.]

Containing the freſheſt Advices, both Foreign and Domeſtic.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 8, 1769.

It is with great Pleaſure we now inform the Public, that at a General Meeting of the Inhabitants of Charles-Town, and of the Places adjacent, the following Aſſociation was unanimouſly agreed to, which we have no Reaſon to doubt will be ſatisfactory to, and concurred with, by every Freeman in the Province.

WE His Majeſty's dutiful and loving Subjects, the Inhabitants of South-Carolina, being ſenſibly affected with the great Prejudice done to Great-Britain, and the abject and wretched Condition to which the Britiſh Colonies are reduced, by ſeveral Acts of Parliament lately paſſed, by ſome of which the Monies that the Coloniſts uſually and chearfully ſpent in the Purchaſe of all ſorts of Goods imported from Great-Britain, are now, to their great Grievance, wrung from them, without their Conſent, or even their being repreſented, and applied, by the Miniſtry, in Prejudice of, and without Regard to, the Intereſt of Great-Britain, almoſt totally, to the Support of new-created Commiſſioners of Cuſtoms, Placemen, paraſitical and naval miniſterial Officers; and by others of which Acts, we are not only deprived of thoſe invaluable Rights, Trial by our Peers and the Common Law, but are alſo made ſubject to the arbitrary and oppreſſive Proceedings of the Civil Law, juſtly abhorred and rejected by our Anceſtors the Free-men of England; and finding, that the moſt dutiful and loyal Petitions from the Coloniſts alone, for Redreſs of thoſe Grievances, have been rejected with Contempt, ſo that no Relief can be expected from that Method of Proceeding; and being fully convinced of the abſolute Neceſſity of ſtimulating our Fellow-Subjects and Sufferers in Great-Britain, to aid us, in this our Diſtreſs, and of joining the Reſt of the Colonies, in ſome other loyal and vigorous Methods, that may moſt probably procure ſuch Relief, which we believe may be moſt effectually promoted by ſtrict OECONOMY, and by encouraging the MANUFACTURES of AMERICA in general, and of this Province in particular: WE THEREFORE, whoſe Names are under-written, do ſolemnly promiſe and agree to and with each other, That, until the Colonies be reſtored to their former Freedom, by the Repeal of the ſaid Acts, we will moſt ſtrictly abide by the following

RESOLUTIONS.

I. THAT we will encourage and promote the Uſe of NORTH-AMERICAN MANUFACTURES in general, and thoſe of this Province in particular.---And any of us, who are Venders thereof, do engage to ſell and diſpoſe of them, at the ſame Rates as heretofore.

II. THAT we will upon no Pretence whatſoever, either upon our own Account or on Commiſſion, import into this Province, any of the MANUFACTURES of GREAT-BRITAIN, or any other EUROPEAN or EAST-INDIA Goods, either from GREAT-BRITAIN, HOLLAND, or ANY OTHER PLACE, other than ſuch as may have been ſhipped in Conſequence of former Orders; excepting only, NEGRO CLOTH, commonly called white and coloured PLAINS, not exceeding One Shilling and Six Pence Sterling per Yard---Striped DUFFIL BLANKETS---OSNABRUGS---coarſe white LINENS, not exceeding One Shilling and Six Pence Sterling per Yard---CANVAS---BOLTING CLOTHS---DRUGS and FAMILY MEDICINES---PLANTATION and WORKMENS TOOLS---NAILS---FIRE ARMS---BAR STEEL---GUN-POWDER---SHOT---LEAD---FLINTS---WIRE CARDS and CARD WIRE---MILL and GRIND-STONES----FISH HOOKS----printed BOOKS and PAMPHLETS---SALT---COALS---and SALT-PETRE. And excluſive of theſe Articles, we do ſolemnly promiſe and declare, that we will immediately countermand all Orders to our Correſpondents in Great-Britain, for ſhipping any ſuch Goods, Wares and Merchandize: And we will ſell and diſpoſe of the Goods we have on Hand, or that may arrive in Conſequence of former Orders, at the ſame Rates as heretofore.

III. THAT we will uſe the utmoſt OECONOMY, in our PERSONS, HOUSES and FURNITURE; particularly, that we will give no MOURNING, or GLOVES or SCARVES at Funerals.

IV. THAT, from and after the Firſt Day of January 1770, we will not IMPORT, BUY, or SELL, any NEGROES that ſhall be brought into this Province from AFRICA; nor, after the Firſt Day of October next, any NEGROES that ſhall be imported from the WEST-INDIES, or ANY OTHER PLACE, excepting from AFRICA as aforeſaid. And that, if any GOODS or NEGROES ſhall be ſent to us, contrary to our Agreement in this Subſcription, ſuch Goods ſhall be re-ſhipped or ſtored, and ſuch Negroes re-ſhipped from this Province, and not by any Means offered for Sale therein.

V. THAT we will not purchaſe from, or ſell for, any Maſters of Veſſels, tranſient Perſons, or Non-Subſcribers, any Kind of EUROPEAN, or EAST-INDIA GOODS whatever, excepting COALS and SALT, after the Firſt Day of November next.

VI. THAT as WINES are ſubject to a heavy Duty, we agree, not import any on our Account or on Commiſſion, or purchaſe from any Maſter of Veſſel, tranſient Perſon, or Non-ſubſcriber, after the Firſt Day of January next.

VII. LASTLY, That we will not purchaſe any NEGROES imported, or any GOODS or MERCHANDIZE whatever, from any Reſident in this Province, that refuſes or neglects to ſign this Agreement within one Month from the Date hereof; excepting it ſhall appear he has been unavoidably prevented from doing the ſame. And every Subſcriber who ſhall not, ſtrictly and literally, adhere to this Agreement, according to the true Intent and Meaning hereof, ought to be treated with the utmoſt Contempt.

GIVEN under our Hands, this and Day of July, 1769.

HEWET & LYNCH,

BEG leave to acquaint the PUBLIC, that they have opened ſhop on the north ſide of Queen-ſtreet, and near the corner of Meeting-ſtreet, where they carry on the Coach, Chaiſe, and Wheel-wright buſineſs. They being regularly bred to the above buſineſs, hope ſuch as pleaſe to favour them with their cuſtom, will meet with the utmoſt ſatisfaction in the execution of their orders.

PROPOSALS

FOR CONTINUING AND IMPROVING

The Pennſylvania Chronicle; AND UNIVERSAL ADVERTISER,

(At the moderate Price of Ten Shillings per Annum)

By WILLIAM GODDARD,

(To be embelliſhed with Copper Plates, which, if ſold ſeparate, could not be afforded for the Price of a Year's Chronicle.)

THE PRINTER of the PENNSYLVANIA CHRONICLE, &c. having inſtituted his Paper with a View of ſerving the PUBLIC, (as well as to obtain for himſelf ſuch moderate Subſiſtence as one of his Profeſſion has a Right to expect) is very deſirous to extend its Utility—and as a Proof of his Sincerity, he propoſes now to make ſome conſiderable Improvements, which he hopes will merit the Attention and Encouragement of the PUBLIC.—To this End he has greatly enlarged his Correſpondence in Europe, and to the numerous Daily and Weekly NEWS-PAPERS, has ordered an additional conſtant Supply of the beſt POLITICAL PAMPHLETS, REGISTERS, REVIEWS, and every other temporary Production that may enable him to proſecute his Deſign with Credit to himſelf and Satisfaction to his Subſcribers.——Several Gentlemen of great Learning and Ingenuity, in this and the neighbouring Provinces, have promiſed to lend their Aſſiſtance, ſo that there may not be wanting ſome original Productions, which may exhibit agreeable Specimens of American Humour and Genius.—The Paper will thus become not only a REGISTER of the BEST INTELLIGENCE (in which no Article, Foreign or Domeſtic, worthy the Public Notice, will be omitted) but a Repoſitory of ingenious and valuable Literature, in Proſe and Verſe;—and to incite Perſons to preſerve their Papers, which will grow into a Family Library of Entertainment and Inſtruction, he intends printing them in a very handſome Quarto, on a good fair Paper, with a new and beautiful Elzevir Type, to be embelliſhed annually with two elegant Copper-Plates, (which are already contracted for) to be executed by the moſt ingenious Artiſts, one to ſerve as a Frontiſpiece, and the other to cloſe the Volume. A neat Title, and a copious and uſeful Index will likewiſe be given.

The extraordinary Expences that the Printer muſt neceſſarily incur, by providing theſe Improvements, will require FURTHER ENCOURAGEMENT, and induce him, whilſt he is returning Thanks to his preſent generous Subſcribers, to ſolicit the Favour of others, as every one muſt be ſenſible from ſo ſmall a Price as TEN SHILLINGS a Year, and the conſtant and incidental Expence of a Preſs, how ſmall a Profit muſt remain to the Printer.—Nor can the Advance of FIVE SHILLINGS, for the firſt Half Year, which he requeſts from every Subſcriber, both new and old, (and for which due Credit ſhall be given) be looked upon as unreaſonable on the preſent improved and expenſive Plan, which will require an immediate Supply.

The conſtant Attention the Printer has always ſhewn to gratify the PUBLIC, the open and impartial Manner in which he has managed his Preſs, UNBIASSED BY PARTY, the free Acceſs every Man has to it in private Diſputes, without Prejudice or Affection to either Side, may, he hopes, entitle him to ſome Degree of Merit in his Buſineſs, and conſequently to thoſe Favours of the Public, which he will be always equally ready to acknowledge and ſtudious to deſerve.

SUBSCRIPTIONS are taken in by the Printer, at his Office in Market-Street; by moſt of the Poſtmaſters, Bookſellers, and Printers, and many other Gentlemen in different Parts of America.—In SOUTH-CAROLINA, by C. CROUCH, Printer, in CHARLES-TOWN.

☞ THE Printer hereof intreats the Favour of all thoſe who are in Arrears for this GAZETTE, to make Payment immediately; and hopes thoſe of his Country Cuſtomers, who have not yet paid any Thing, will conſider him, and chearfully comply with his Requeſt, by ordering their Friends or Factors in Town to pay off their Accounts, which will be of very great Service to him.—And all Perſons whatever, who may be inclinable to favour the Printer of this Gazette with their ADVERTISEMENTS, may rely on its anſwering their End, as he is regular in publiſhing his Paper on the Day it is dated, and the Circulation of it is very extenſive; but it is hoped, at the ſame Time, that they will be pleaſed to ſend the CASH with them, as he is determined in future to receive none without, except it be thoſe of the Public, where he owes Money, or has an open Account; which Reſolution, he flatters himſelf, will give no Offence to thoſe who are really deſirous to ſerve him.

PHILIP HAWKINS, & Co.

HAVE JUST IMPORTED,

A Quantity of the very beſt blue and white WATCHET PLAINS, of an extraordinary width and quality, Briſtol and London DUFFILS, a parcel of men and womens yarn and coarſe worſted HOSE, and to be ſold very cheap at their ſtore in Tradd-ſtreet, lately poſſeſſed by Meſſrs. John Edwards, & Co.

BOSTON, JUNE 26.

HIS Majeſty, by Writ of Privy Seal, has been pleaſed to iſſue his Royal Commiſſion, bearing date at Weſtminſter the ſeventh day of October, in the ſeventh year of his reign, authorizing and appointing John Temple, Eſq; Lieutenant-Governor of New-Hampſhire, William Allen, Eſq; Chief-Juſtice of Pennſylvania, Peyton Randolph, Eſq; Attorney-General and one of the Council of Virginia, Benjamin Franklin, Eſq; Poſt-Maſter-General of North-America, Andrew Elliot, Eſq; Receiver-General of Quit-Rents, Samuel Holland and William De Brahm, Eſqrs. Surveyors-General of Lands in the northern and ſouthern diſtricts of America, Charles Morris, Eſq; one of the Council of Nova-Scotia, Andrew Oliver, Eſq; Secretary of the province of Maſſachuſetts-Bay, Charles Stuart, Eſq; of Quebec, and Jared Ingerſoll, Eſq; of Connecticut, or any five of them, to aſcertain, ſettle, and determine the boundary line between the two provinces of New-York and New-Jerſey, in ſuch manner as from ſufficient evidence produced to them, ſhall appear juſt and equitable. And we hear the 12th of next month is the day appointed for ſaid commiſſioners to meet at the city of New-York, to proceed on the buſineſs of their commiſſion.

Extract of a Letter from Dennys de Berdt, Eſq; to Thomas Cuſhing, Eſq; received by the laſt packet.

SIR, London, April 5, 1769.

THE ſeveral reports relating to my conduct are ſuch falſe repreſentations, that I am obliged, both for your ſatisfaction and my own reputation, to endeavour to ſet them to rights, as I have the ſame ardent zeal for ſerving the province and defending the cauſe of liberty that I ever profeſſed, and ſhould be grieved if any of my friends imagined it in the leaſt abated, nor have I ever had any other ſort of connection with the Earl of Hillſborough than tranſacting the buſineſs of your province and that of the three counties of Delaware.

When the petition of your Houſe arrived, there were very few perſons of diſtinction in town, all thoſe to whom you ſent letters, except one, were in the country, it being in the time of general elections.

I thought it better therefore not to deliver your petition immediately, there being none of your friends preſent to ſupport it, and the ſituation of things remained ſuch, even till ſome time after I had actually delivered it to Lord Hillſborough, (if its being confeſſedly in his poſſeſſion may be called a delivery) for my being a ſmall diſtance in the country, Mr. Sayre left it with his lordſhip on the Monday evening; I waited upon him the next morning, when his lordſhip appointed Wedneſday, the next day, at twelve o'clock, for me to attend him. I accordingly waited on him, and after his having told me he had the petition, talked near an hour upon the ſubject, and I urged his lordſhip to preſent it to his Majeſty when he thought it would be moſt for the benefit of the province.

A few weeks after this meeting I again attended his lordſhip, who ſhewed me a letter printed that day in the public papers, the writer of which reflected upon his lordſhip for having ſecreted the petition, and this founded upon intelligence from your ſide the water, I therefore, in juſtice to his lordſhip and real truth, immediately informed the public, by an advertiſement, I, and not his lordſhip, had, for various reaſons, delayed it ſo long, that accuſation from America againſt his lordſhip could not be juſt at that time; he having had poſſeſſion of it, as near as I can remember, three weeks.

Upon my delivering the letter from your houſe, as you may ſee by mine of the 26th of Auguſt, his lordſhip repeatedly told me that the King had ſeen your petition, and his ſecretary, Mr. Pownall, being then preſent, ſaid he wondered how any one dare aſſert to the contrary.

If his lordſhip did not ſhew or deliver it in a public capacity, or if it was not the firſt preſented to his Majeſty, as it was the firſt petition from the colonies which came into the ſecretary's hands, I am not culpable.

From the above account, it is plain that my lord Hillſborough's repreſentation of my conduct, reſpecting the petition of the Houſe, is a mere artful trifling with words and forms, and convinces me of what I have before ſuſpected, that his lordſhip is not pleaſed with your petitions or the ſpirit which produces them.

He freely expreſſes his diſapprobation to all Agents, and recommends that the buſineſs of the province ſhould be tranſacted by the Governor with the Secretary of State, which I am ſure would not prove beneficial to the people.

It is very evident from the whole of the affair, the falſe repreſentation of my conduct, in which I endeavoured your real ſervice, is deſigned to weaken the mutual confidence ſo happily hitherto ſubſiſting between me and your province, which is my higheſt ambition and ſatisfaction to maintain and preſerve, and your approbation has always been the ſtrongeſt ſtimulus to your ſervice, even long before I acted in a public capacity, and your placing that confidence in me by chuſing me agent is an additional incentive to exert myſelf in your behalf, and will never be abated by any chicanery whatever.

If you think this account will afford any ſatisfaction to the public, you have my permiſſion to print it, and remain with great eſteem, your obliged and obedient ſervant,

DENNYS DE BERDT.

PHILADELPHIA, JUNE 29.

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman in Briſtol, to his Friend in this Place, dated April 17, 1769.

"I find ſome of our People here are endeavouring to evade the Reſolutions of your Merchants, large Quantities of Goods being now ſhipping for Maryland, which are intended for your Place, and New-York."

By Captain Adams, in 10 Weeks from Barcelona, we learn, that the Emperor of Morocco has agreed to furniſh the Garriſon of Gibraltar with live Stock, &c. and trade with the Engliſh, on the ſame Terms as formerly; which Trade, for ſome Time paſt, had been ſtopt, on Account of his demanding double Duties.

Since our laſt Captain Wilſon arrived here from Cape Nicholas, with whom came Paſſenger Capt. Alexander Gear, late of the Brig Nancy, belonging to, and bound for Georgia from the Cape, which Veſſel was unfortunately caſt away the 17th of laſt Month on Heneago, and, together with the Cargo, entirely loſt; the People with Difficulty ſaved their Lives, having left all their Cloaths, &c. and had their Boat ſtave to Pieces; but they afterwards made a Raft, with which they ſafe got on Shore, from whence they got a Paſſage to the Mole in ſome Wreckers.

WILLIAMSBURG, (in Virginia) JUNE 15.

Laſt Saturday his Excellency WILLIAM TRYON, Eſq; Governor of North-Carolina, and his Lady, arrived at the Palace in this city, on a viſit to his Excellency Lord BOTETOURT, and we hear they propoſe ſtaying ſome time with his Lordſhip. The ſame day Joſeph Howes and Edmond Fanning, Eſquires, and Mr. Edwards, ſecretary to his Excellency, arrived here; and, we are told, his Excellency ROBERT EDEN, Eſq; Governor of Maryland, is expected here in a ſhort time.

We hear there has been a ſlight ſhock of an earthquake felt lately at Liſbon, which was ſucceeded by a violent and heavy rain, that raiſed ſuch a freſh in the river, as carried off a whole village; a cradle was taken up, in which was a child that lived three days, and a lady and gentleman were found dead in a chaiſe. Capt. Fawn (by whom we have this intelligence) adds, that the torrent brought down with it prodigious numbers of ſnakes, and that it was with difficulty he kept his veſſel clear of them.

ST. JAGO DE LA VEGA, (in Jamaica) JUNE 10.

Saturday evening died, the Hon. Peter Furnell, Eſq; Cuſtos and Chief Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of Kingſton. He was one of the oldeſt Merchants in that Town, and has ſince his commencement in buſineſs, bore an unblemiſhed character.

We hear that the Hon. Brigadier General Thomas French, will be appointed Cuſtos of Kingſton.

JUNE 17. A paragraph of a letter from a gentleman in London to his brother at Cork, of the 17th April laſt, mentions, that debates ran ſo high and general in the Houſe of Commons, on the Saturday before, that it was two o'clock the following morning before the houſe broke up. Mr. Beckford read in the Houſe the tenth Chapter of the ſecond book of Chronicles, upon the concluſion of which the oppoſite party cried, "to the Tower with him," in anſwer to which I think Mr. Beckford dared them, and ſaid, "He would bank the Adminiſtration."

It is certain that his Majeſty's ſhip Preſton, Baſil Keith, Eſq; commander, will ſail for England on the Arrival of Commodore Forreſt, who is daily expected.

Wedneſday laſt was tried at the Supreme Court of Judicature in this town, a Cauſe the King v. Merida, it was brought on an Adminiſtration Bond, againſt Auguſtin Merida, Eſq; as Security for Mrs. Tereſia Conſtantia Lantagnac, dec. (and before married to Samuel Calender, Eſq; dec.) for her due adminiſtration on the eſtate of Mr. Calender. Be it remembered that this tranſaction of hers deſerves particular mention; ſhe had honourably paid the debts of Mr. Calender as far as his eſtate would allow, and generouſly advanced near 1000l. of her own fortune, towards further payment of his creditors. Her vouchers were the cleareſt that had been produced for many years in ſuch cauſes, her juſtice as executrix pleaſing, and the remembrance of her ill-judged generoſity in reducing herſelf to indigence before her death exciting pity. The jury without the leaſt heſitation found a verdict for the Defendant.

ST. JOHN, (in Antigua) JUNE 7.

Extract of a Letter from Capt. George Luther, of the Sloop Dove, belonging to Bermuda, to his friend in St. Kitts, dated May 27, 1769.

"After I left your iſland, I went to Spaniſh-Town, from thence proceeded for Tortuga, to get a load of ſalt. In my way down, 23 miles to the ſouthward of Blanco, on the 27th ult. about ten at night, I was fired at by a veſſel. I immediately brought too, and ſhewed a light, not apprehending any danger. About ten minutes after, a ſhip ran along-ſide, and ordered me to ſtrike. I anſwered I had already done ſo. They ordered me to hoiſt out my boat, and come on board. I told them I could not; upon which they diſcharged a broad-ſide of cannon and ſwivel guns, and a volley of ſmall arms into my ſloop, which cut the rigging and ſails in many places, and ſome ſhot through her wale. They then came on board my ſloop, and carried me on board their ſhip, and told me I muſt go to Laguira. They brought all my people on board, except my mate and boy, and put 16 Spaniards on board my ſloop, and made ſail for Margaritta, where we arrived the next day, about 12 o'clock, P. M. and came to anchor. They then ſent me on board the ſloop, and carried my mate to the ſhip, and examined him; then ſent for me again, and told me I might go where I pleaſed. I then informed them that they had robbed me of all my proviſions, ſtores, and neceſſaries, had beat my mate and ſailors in a cruel manner, and robbed them of their cloaths; and that I would rather go with them to Laguira, than be diſmiſſed in that diſtreſſed condition: Upon which they returned me my quadrant, books, fire-works, and coffee-mill, but kept every thing elſe, ordering me and my ſailors into the boat, and told us, if we did not get away that night, they would whip us to death: So that I was obliged to ſail for Tortuga, where I now am. The ſhip mounts 20 guns, 12 and 9 pounders, and carries 170 men, navigated by Spaniards, but the name of the ſhip or Captain I could not learn, though I often enquired; nor could I receive any other information than that ſhe was a Guarda-Coſta from Laguira. I think I have been cruelly treated, and beg you would get it inſerted in the public gazette."

JULY 5. Laſt Sunday ſailed for England, vice admiral Pye, in his Majeſty's ſhip Chatham.

GRENADA, MAY 6.

On Wedneſday laſt came on to be heard at the court of common pleas, the cauſe wherein Clozier De Coheau was plaintiff, and John M'Farran and Henry Sharpe, Eſqrs. two of his Majeſty's juſtices of the peace were defendants, upon an action of damages for falſe impriſonment. Upon hearing the evidence on behalf of the plaintiff, the court were unanimous in declaring that the defendants might ſafely reſt their cauſe on the plaintiff's own ſhewing; but the defendants, deſirous of totally removing any bad impreſſions which might have been entertained from a falſe repreſentation of the fact, called upon two or three gentlemen to ſatisfy what they knew concerning the matter, upon hearing of whoſe evidence the court declared themſelves fully ſatisfied that there was no foundation for the action, and immediately the jury (without withdrawing) returned a verdict for the defendants, with ſix-pence coſts.

SAVANNAH, (in Georgia) JULY 19.

We are told, that in the engagement lately betwixt the Creeks and Choctaws near Mobile, there were only eight or nine of the former killed. The Creeks it is ſaid are going out in a body againſt the Choctaws, and are determined to put an end to the war this ſummer.

Monday evening laſt died in Savannah, after an illneſs of only two days, Joſiah Gibbons, Eſq; a man of an upright character, whoſe charitable and friendly diſpoſition gained him the eſteem of all his acquaintance; he was a truly good huſband, an affectionate father, and a friend to the needy; remarkable for his induſtry, by which he acquired a ſufficient fortune to leave a numerous family handſomely provided for; his death is a real loſs to this young colony, as a very uſeful member of the community, and irreparable to his diſconſolate family.

JULY 26. Monday laſt arrived here in 33 days from Boſton, the ſloop Phœnix, Hans M'Daniel maſter, in which came paſſengers, Mrs. Randal, wife of William Randal, Eſq; and Mrs. Lamotte, wife of Mr. Anthony Lamotte of Sunbury.

We are told the Hon. Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms are ſoon to leave Boſton and return to England.

BASTIA, April 11.

THE Count de Vaux, the new commander of the French troops, is taking every meaſure to open the campaign as ſoon as poſſible. Eight thouſand of theſe troops are already encamped near this city, and only wait for orders to march againſt the Corſicans. The principal camp is in the plain of St. Nicholas, but many ſmall bodies are ſent to different places. The Corſicans, in order to prevent being ſurprized, have entrenched themſelves, and have called in the men from the outpoſts, to ſtrengthen thoſe who are in a condition to make a defence. The Count de Vaux, in the manifeſto which he has publiſhed, declares, That ſuch villages as are entrenched and defended by the regular troops ſhall be permitted to capitulate, and the articles of their capitulation ſhall be complied with, leſt it ſhould be believed they were forced to ſubmit themſelves to any terms impoſed on them; that the inhabitants of villages, who after ſubmitting ſhall take up arms again, ſhall be conſidered as robbers upon the highway, and as ſuch be condemned to the gallies; that in caſe any inhabitants of villages which have not ſubmitted ſhall be taken priſoners in ſmall numbers, without an order in writing ſigned by their commandant, they ſhall be equally conſidered as robbers, and be ſubject to the ſame fate; and laſtly, that the villages who, upon the approach of the French troops, ſhall ſummit themſelves immediately, will be favourably received, and partake of the lenity with which his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty is reſolved to treat ſuch as voluntarily ſubmit themſelves.

TURIN, April 19. According to a calculation which has been made by General Paoli, it appears, that the inhabitants of Corſica amount to 32,736 men, from 17 years of age to 60, able to bear arms, without reckoning the religious. The number of the whole inhabitants amounts to 130,000, which is a ſixth more than they were in the year 1759.

FRONTIERS OF TURKEY, April 19. The fleet which the Porte is going to ſend by the Black Sea as far as Aſoph, conſiſts of upwards of 240 ſail, among which are 30 ſhips of the line. The tranſports which are to carry the troops and baggage are very numerous. The new ſtandard in the room of that of Mahomet, which is to be carried to the army, is ſo ornamented with pearls and jewels, that when it is diſplayed in the ſun it dazzels the ſight to look at it.

PARIS, May 8. As the reduction of the intereſt of money to four per cent. has not had the deſired effect, but on the contrary ſeems rather to have clogged trade, it is aſſured that the King will revoke that law, and ſet the intereſt of money at five per cent. again.

The laſt letters from Corſica adviſe, that the Count de Vaux will not undertake any thing in that country till he has got 40,000 effective men, as he declared to the miniſtry before he went from hence.

PETERSBURGH, April 11. We received advice a few days ago, that a body of Ruſſian troops, conſiſting of three battalions, 1000 Coſſacks, and 200 huſſars, have taken the important fortreſs of Azoff, without the leaſt loſs. Nothing is more extraordinary than the negligence of the Ottoman Porte with reſpect to the preſervation of a place of ſo much conſequence to them in the preſent ſituation of affairs. The court has ordered 3000 men to be employed in repairing the fortifications.

COPENHAGEN, April 28. The royal fleet is compleated, and is gone out into our road, but its deſtination and the time of its ſailing remain a ſecret. It conſiſts of eight men of war, viz. two of 70 guns, three of 60 guns, three of 50 guns, and two frigates of 30 guns each.

FROM THE BANKS OF THE DANUBE, April 25. We have juſt received advice from Conſtantinople, that the Turks, upon the occaſion of removing the ſtandard of Mahomet, made a grand proceſſion through the city; all chriſtians upon this occaſion were forbid to appear in the ſtreets, or at their windows; but the wife and daughter of the miniſter of one of the firſt powers of Europe, being excited by curioſity, placed themſelves at a ſecret window to obſerve the proceſſion, which was no ſooner diſcovered by the Turks, than they attacked the ambaſſador's houſe, and endeavoured to force an entrance; but the ſervants of the miniſter oppoſing them, well armed, a dreadful fray enſued, in which no leſs than one hundred perſons loſt their lives, and the Ambaſſador's daughter was ſaid to be mortally wounded. As ſoon as the Porte was acquainted with this outrage, the ringleaders of the rioters were taken into cuſtody, and four of their heads were directly ſtruck off and ſent to the miniſter, with aſſurances from the Grand Signor, that all poſſible ſatisfaction ſhould be made him for the injury he had received.

SIENNA, April 21. We hear that the French King has appointed Count Marbœuf Governor general of the kingdom of Corſica. This campaign is expected to be extremely bloody; fifteen battalions more are ordered to embark from Provence, to reinforce the Count de Vaux, under convoy of ſeveral men of war and bomb veſſels, which are deſtined for the ſiege of Iſola Roſſa.

MADRID, April 18. Our court continues to put the navy upon a reſpectable footing; and in conſequence of that plan, ſix men of war of ſeventy guns each, and four frigates, have lately been finiſhed. We alſo learn from Cadiz, that the St. Jacques d'Amerique, a man of war of eighty guns, is arrived there from the Havana, with about two millions of piaſtres: This is the third ſhip of the line that has been built there ſince the peace; but another is ſoon expected from thence of 116 guns.

The Sieur O'Reily, Lieutenant-general of the King's forces, ſet out yeſterday for Cadiz, in order to embark on board one of his Majeſty's ſhips; and it is thought his orders are to go to Porto Rico, La Vera Cruz and Mexico, to review the King's troops there, and to form a national militia.

CADINCA, April 26. There have juſt appeared here printed copies of the treaty concluded between the crown of France and the republic of Genoa, ſigned at Verſailles the 15th of June, 1768. It conſiſts of ſixteen articles, the whole contents of which we had never ſeen here till this time; and we find it ſo manifeſtly to our prejudice, that we are more and more animated to defend our rights, ſince, if France ſhould ſucceed in ſubduing us, our condition cannot be worſe than it is according to the articles of this treaty.

CONSTANTINOPLE, May 4. At length the principal part of the grand army, with which the Porte is about to oppoſe that of Ruſſia, is put in motion with the Grand Vizir at their head. The 21ſt of laſt month, the artiſans and bodies of tradeſmen marched out of the city in good order; the train was very numerous; every chief of a corporation received a gratuity from the Grand Signor. The 23d the Janiſſaries did the ſame, and repaired to the camp marked out a little diſtance from the city. They were divided into 90 companies, and formed a body of 135,000 men. The firſt of theſe companies was preceded by 150 water-carriers, and the laſt followed by a Lieutenant-general, an hundred officers of different ranks, the Aga as maſter of the ceremonies, laſtly the Aga himſelf with a conſiderable retinue. All theſe officers were on horſeback, and richly habited. The ſtandard of the Aga was white ſilk embroidered with gold. On the 25th the body of miners and canoniers alſo quitted the city amid the repeated acclamations of the people, and the frequent diſcharges of muſquetry, during their march. On the 27th the Grand Vizer, ſuperbly dreſſed, with a moſt brilliant ſuite, repaired to the camp, and there fixed the grand ſtandard of the army. On the 29th and 30th, the miniſters of foreign powers repaired alſo to the camp to wiſh the Grand Vizir an happy journey, who gave each a pompous reception. On the 30th the Sieur Obreſcow, reſident miniſter of Ruſſia, and the Sieur Lewaſchow, his colleague, were carried from the Caſtle of the Seven Towers to the camp. The day before yeſterday the Grand Signor cauſed a ſumptuous repaſt to be given to the Grand Vizir and the principal officers of the army. After which his highneſs went to the camp, and gave orders, in great formality, to the Grand Vizir to begin his march, which that generaliſſimo did the ſame day. The Grand Signor has ordered, under pain of death, that all thoſe who have taken arms, and will not follow the army, to quit it immediately.

WARSAW, April 29. The Sieur Zackrzewſki, chief of the confederacy of Wyſlogrod, going at the head of 1200 men into Lithuania, was attacked and defeated by Major Drewitz, near Dyaliſtock, the reſidence of Count Branicky, grand general of the crown. The Sieur Zackrzewſki and 150 men were killed upon the ſpot, and about 60 more wounded. The Ruſſians ſuffered very little loſs, except 100 horſes, which were killed by their precipitate march.

LEGHORN, April 27. According to the laſt letters from Corſica, we learn, that Count de Vaux, commander of the French troops, was preparing to attack the Corſicans in many places at one time, thinking this the moſt effectual method of diſtreſſing them, as the ſmallneſs of the number of the Corſicans will not permit them to make many diviſions. But General Paoli is indefatigable in making every neceſſary preparation in order to receive him; and has cauſed one of the arches belonging to the bridge on the Golo a Mariana to be broke up, to obſtruct, as much as poſſible, the march of the French forces.

STOCKHOLM, May 2. By advices from Caſſeroon we learn, that they are fitting out there with all expedition, eight ſhips of the line and two frigates. This ſquadron will be equal in force to that lately equipped at Copenhagen.

LEGHORN, May 5. We have received the following letter from a French officer in Corſica, dated April 15. "Our operations are ſtill retarded by the expectation of ſeveral battalions from Provence. Yeſterday arrived, at the general quarters, Lord Pembroke, an Engliſh nobleman. He requeſted of the Count de Vaux a paſſport to go to France, which was immediately granted him. Prejudiced in favour of Paoli, he hath laid 100 louis d'ors with the Marquis de Laval, that we ſhall not be in Corte in January, 1770. The Count de Wargemont, commander of the legion of Soubiſe, afterwards propoſed a wager to him of 300 louis d'ors, that we ſhall be there before the end of next July; but his lordſhip did not accept it."

LONDON, MAY 13.

THE following fact accounts for Mr. Wedderburn's having vacated his ſeat. Sir L—— D—— ſent to Mr. Wedderburn the other day in conſequence of his voting for a late petition, and told him that his ſeat was given him merely with a view to his ſupporting adminiſtration on all occaſions. Mr. Wedderburn anſwered, with a ſpirit becoming every one who has the honour of repreſenting a free people, "that if it was expected he ſhould give his ſanction to meaſures oppoſite to the conſtitution, he deſired ſome method might be taken to vacate his ſeat." In conſequence of which an inſignificant place was given him, and he is no longer a member.

The Duke de Liencourt, the Count de Lucern, the Marquis de Lovepollie, and ſeveral other foreigners of diſtinction ſet out on Wedneſday, Thurſday, and yeſterday from hence to Paris, "To give an account, "as an Engliſh Nobleman obſerved, on taking leave of the Duke de Liencourt" of the riots and diſturbances which have of late terrified and diſgraced this metropolis."

The part of a late ſpeech, which reſpects the affairs of America, has thrown the friends of the Americans into a general panick, as it beſpeaks no lenient intention towards them.

MAY 15. The following is a liſt of the members of parliament preſent at a patriotic meeting at the Thatched-Houſe Tavern, in St. James's-ſtreet, on Tueſday laſt, viz. Sir Edward Aſtley, Baronet, in the chair, Earl of Fife, Earl Ludlow, Lord Clive, Right Hon. Lord George Cavendiſh, Lord Frederick Cavendiſh, Lord John Cavendiſh, Right Hon. Lord George Sackville, Right Hon. George Grenville, Right Hon. William Dowdeſwell, Right Hon. Thomas Townſhend, Right Hon. Iſaac Barrè, Right Hon. W. G. Hamilton, Hon. Peregrine Bertie, Hon. Aubrey Beauclerk, Hon. Auguſtus Keppell, Hon. John Damer, Hon. Conſtantine Phipps, Sir George Savile, Sir William Codrington, Sir Francis Vincent, Sir John St. Aubin, Sir William Meredith, Sir Joſeph Mawbey, Sir George Colebroke, Sir Samuel Corniſh, Baronet, Sir Charles Saunders, K. B. Sir Robert Fletcher, Knight, J. Aubrey, R. H. Coxe, J. Butler, T. Haiſey, R. Whitworth, J. Murray, F. V. Sharp, D. Rolle, G. B. Clarke, T. Foley, F. Montagu, T. Pitt, J. Calcraft, R. Clive, H. Cavendiſh, Richard Fuller, G. Eyng, H. Seymour, J. Townſend, J. Scudamore, H. Strachey, N. Cholmley, R. Skipwith, Edmund Burke, W. Burke, J. Hanbury, J. Norris, D. Laſcelles, J. Damer, L. Macklean, R. Gregory, J. Irwin, J. Ruſhout, Col. P. Jennings, T. Staunton, A. Wedderburn, C. W. Cornwall, J. Mauger, H. Fletcher, J. Sawbridge, T. Watley, Eſqrs. Alderman Beckford, Alderman Trecothick, Alderman Croſby.

MAY 16. It is ſaid a ſumptuary law will ſoon paſs, to render the education of young ladies and gentlemen leſs expenſive: As, owing to this trade of ſchools and academies in London, the convents in France, Flanders, and Germany, ſwarm with the younger daughters of conſiderable families, and the private academies abroad with the younger ſons.

MAY 17. We hear that the Earl of Harcourt is ſent for from the court of France, but his Lordſhip is not yet arrived in town. It is reported that he will be appointed Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

It is alſo ſaid that the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland will be called home, and appointed Firſt Lord of the Treaſury.

The conduct of a North Britiſh Counſellor, on an important occaſion, is ſpoken of in all companies, not only with commendation, but the higheſt admiration, as he has given a moſt ſtriking proof of his inflexible integrity and manly ſpirit by his late ſeceſſion, unexampled with reſpect to the cauſe. The now reigning toaſt is, "Counſellor Wedderburn, the ornament of his country and his profeſſion."

MAY 18. Some of our city politicians pretend to be very clear, that we ſhall have a war with France before Michaelmas next.

We hear from Paris, that the inhabitants of Louiſiana have inſtructed their agents to make the ſtrongeſt applications, in order to re-eſtabliſh the French government among them, declaring unanimouſly, that if they had the misfortune to be deprived of being ſubjects to France, they will abandon their ſettlements, and leave the Spaniards nothing but a deſart (across which the Engliſh may eaſily penetrate to Mexico) to exerciſe their authority in, being reſolved, in caſe the King will not liſten to their intreaties, to live among the ſavages, and enjoy with them that liberty which ſeems now the only good that is left them.

MAY 20. There is a report that the Empreſs of Ruſſia has made very important overtures to the Grand Maſter and the Knights of Malta, to aſſiſt her in her preſent rupture with the Turks; and that that warlike community have actually had Imperial Majeſty's propoſals under deliberation.

MAY 22. They write from Antibes, that eight battalions of freſh troops were juſt gone from the ports of that province for Corſica; and it is added that the miniſtry had ſent thither twenty-two millions of livres ſince the month of March laſt.

MAY 24. Within theſe five days part of Mr. Preach agents have been very buſy in buying up large quantities of gun-powder, to be ſhipped for Breſt, and other French ports.

The following is the ſubſtance of the treaty concluded at Verſailles the 15th of June laſt, between his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty and the Republic of Genoa. The King engages to deliver the iſland of Capraia into the hands of the Republic of Genoa, on or before the year 1772. His Majeſty alſo engages to y over the places taken by his troops in Corſica, until ſtipulated by treaty be paid to him by the Genoeſe; and, forces have conquered the interior parts of the iſland, ity engages to treat every Corſican with the utmoſt the lave, who ſhall do any prejudice to the Genoeſe, that the Republic ceaſes to commit any hoſtilities againſt ants. Whilſt the King has poſſeſſion of Corſica, exact of the taxes raiſed are to be regiſtered, which are to ted from the ſum paid by Genoa to France, for being poſſeſſion of Corſica.

id, the ſum of 7000l. is ſubſcribed towards the ſupport ll of Rights.

o informed, that there is not the leaſt uneaſineſs or between Great-Britain and Pruſſia, but that the greateſt ſubſiſts not only between this nation and Pruſſia, but ia alſo; and that, to prevent the Swedes from interrupt-, Pruſſia will co-operate by land with our fleet, if the ould be over-perſuaded by France, to make a diverſion of the Turks.

raft of a letter from Conſtantinople, dated April 30.

withſtanding what Lord North declared at the opening dget, concerning the good ſtate of your affairs, and the f a long continuance of peace, I very much fear, from itions and intrigues of the people here, particularly of of your enemies, the French, that we ſhall too ſoon tely ſee England in a ſituation which of all others ſhe ſh to avoid at preſent. There has been a ſtrong report theſe few days paſt, that Mr. Murray, the Engliſh here, is to be ſent to the Seven Towers. I at firſt gave to it; but upon his being aſked by a friend of mine if any foundation for the report, he ſaid, he had heard had given him great uneaſineſs, but that he hoped for That he ſhould not be ſurprized, if the vile and ſecret ons of the French might turn the mediation of England account; and that all his endeavours for the releaſe of ſcow, the Ruſſian Miniſter, very probably would be e ineffectual. God knows, my dear friend, but I ſee little a diſtance, not to expect Great-Britain will ſoon incipal ſhare in it. I go to-morrow to ſee the review y march to Adrianople."

26. On Wedneſday, at 11 o'clock at night, a Council was held at Lord Gower's houſe, Whitehall; at which ttleton, and many others of the Privy Council, not ammoned, did attend.

27. On Thurſday night, at 11 o'clock, a Council was t Lord Weymouth's houſe in Arlington-ſtreet.

For SALE, by private contract,

A Very valuable tract of about 400 acres of LAND, in St. James's pariſh, Gooſe Creek, bounding ſouthward on land of Mr. John Fulmer, weſtward and northward on land of Mr. Peter Bacot, eaſtward on land of William Haggatt, Eſq; hath full 80 acres of good cypreſs ſwamp, the other part is good corn and indico land, and is well timbered, lies within three or four miles of two landings, Gooſe-Creek bridge and Dorcheſter, and not more than 18 miles from Charles-Town. Whoever inclines to purchaſe, may apply in Charles-Town, to GEORGE PARKER.

TO BE SOLD CHEAP,

AN exceeding good HARPSICORD. Enquire of the Printer.

THOMAS-LOUGHTON SMITH,

EARNESTLY entreats thoſe indebted to him by bond, note, or book account, to make payment to Mr. John Logan, who has directions to put every debt in ſuit, without diſtinction, that may remain unpaid the firſt of September next.

The long indulgence already granted, he fears has made his friends unmindful of him.——The intention therefore of this advertiſement is to prevent their being put to the charges that will accrue, ſhould they neglect what he ſo reaſonably requires.

N. B. A pair of very good bay geldings, that match well, and have been uſed to a poſt-chaiſe and phæton, to be ſold. Enquire of Mr. Logan.

TO BE SOLD together, or in parcels, or leaſed, and may be entered on immediately,

A BODY of exceeding good river ſwamp ſavannah, and high lands ſufficient for five or ſix ſettlements, and is calculated for rice or indico, about 2000 acres of the ſwamp and ſavannah may be laid under water, with very little expence of damming, and is eſteemed as good for rice as moſt of the land at the ſouthward, having a fine blue clay foundation, and has the advantage of other lands on Santee, being ſituated ſo that two months work of 40 hands will ſecure 1500 acres againſt the higheſt freſhes; the high land is as good for corn or indico as any in the province, and has on it a dwelling-houſe, out-houſes, a garden, and about 200 acres under good fence, and fit for plowing. There are alſo in the low grounds three ſets of cypreſs indico vats, pumps, &c. and 90 acres damed in, fit for planting, and may be plowed; ſaid land is near Neilſon's-ferry, 60 miles from Charles-Town, and two from ſaid ferry landing, where boats from 50 to 70 barrels of rice burthen are paſſing almoſt every week in the year.——A reaſonable time for payment will be given, but conſiderable abatement for ready money or ſhort credit.

N. B. The land will be ſold much cheaper than any of the ſame quality has been in this province for many years paſt. For further particulars, enquire of the printer, or Mr. JARED NEILSON, at Neilſon's-ferry, on Santee.

RUN-AWAY ſome time in May, 1768, from the ſubſcriber, at Sampitt, a negro fellow, named LEEDS, he is 28 years of age, of a yellowiſh complexion, five feet eight inches high, ſtout and well made, very artful, and ſuppoſed to be harboured about Santee, where he has many relations.——ONE HUNDRED POUNDS currency reward, will be paid by the ſubſcriber to any perſon who will apprehend the ſaid fellow and deliver him to John Calvert, or the warden of the work-houſe, in Charles-Town, or to the ſubſcriber at Sampitt.——The like ſum to any perſon giving information of his being harbourd by a white perſon, or FIFTY POUNDS if by a negro, on due proof thereof. 6w. FRANCIS WITHERS.
